

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Famao Fatima Aman

Current Position: Librarian

Institution: Busitema University

Campus Library: Engineering Library, Busitema Campus

Location: Uganda

Educational Background

- Master of Information Science - Makerere University
- Bachelor of Library and Information Science - Makerere University

Professional Summary

Famao Fatima Aman is a dedicated and self-motivated information professional with a strong foundation in library and information science. She is skilled in applying modern, participatory approaches to records and knowledge management within an academic setting. Her work is characterized by excellent communication, a collaborative spirit, and a strategic focus on improving information systems for users.

Core Skills & Expertise

- Information Management. Proficient in core librarianship, participatory records management, and knowledge organization.
- Communication and Collaboration. Excels in multidisciplinary and multicultural team environments, with strong interpersonal skills.
- Strategic Administration. Experienced in writing work plans, progress reports, and ensuring accountability for project compliance.
- Professional Attributes. Highly analytical with strong problem-solving skills, sound judgment, discretion, and a commitment to confidentiality.

Career Objective

To secure a challenging role where she can contribute her expertise in human resources, library, and information management to enhance information accessibility, storage solutions, and knowledge sharing practices